

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
THE UNIVERSITY GRADUATE SCHOOL

June 26, 2017

Dear Colleague:

It is my pleasure to invite you to spread the word about Getting You into Indiana University (GU2IU), a campus recruitment program for prospective underrepresented and minority students interested in pursuing a Ph.D. or M.F.A. at Indiana University (IUB) Bloomington. The three-day event will be conducted on the IUB campus, begins Sunday October 15, 2017, and ends on Tuesday, October 17, 2017. This is an all-expense paid trip for selected highly qualified applicants including air fare, lodging, and meals. Participants will learn more about IU's Ph.D. and M.F.A. programs, research opportunities and funding options. Additionally, participants will meet with faculty, staff and current graduate students, explore campus cultural centers, and take a campus tour.

Participants must be US citizens or permanent residents who are seniors, master's level students in good academic standing; or, degreed professionals interested in pursuing a PhD or MFA at Indiana University Bloomington.

The application process for "Getting You into IU" consists of:

- (1) a completed application: click HERE which will ask you to
 - (a) provide demographic information;
 - (b) provide a brief summary of your academic and research experiences;
 - (c) identify your prospective PhD or MFA program; and,
 - (d) list the names of three to five IUB faculty members you wish to meet during your visit
- (2) attach a copy of your curriculum vitae (CV) and unofficial transcript; and,
- (3) faculty nomination (highly recommended but not required).

The application deadline is by September 1, 2017. Preference will be for faculty nominated participants in STIM (sciences, technology, informatics and mathematics) disciplines and the social sciences. Once again, faculty nominations are recommended, but not required; and, must be received by September 1, 2017. To nominate participants online, faculty, advisors and other mentors need to complete the online nomination form: click HERE to submit a nomination.

Let your nominee know that you have recommended her/him, and inform them that their online applications, CV and unofficial student transcripts must be submitted and received by September 1, 2017.

Please visit our website <http://graduate.indiana.edu/about/diversity/visit-iu.shtml> for additional information. If you have direct questions, please email agep@indiana.edu.

Sincerely,

Bianca D. Evans, Ph.D.
Director, Getting You into IU (GU2IU)
Assistant Dean, Diversity and Inclusion
Indiana University Graduate School